

There Is Little Hope for Mrs. Hayes and General Cameron.

ARREST OF ANOTHER SUSPECT

The Recent Prohibition Defeat—The Situation at Johnston—A Mighty Oath of 1400 Voices—Two Boys Killed.

Frankfort, O., June 23.—Ex President Hayes and family are still anxiously and vigilantly watching for any sign of hope for the recovery of their wife and mother. It is now over forty-eight hours since the attack, and there is no more hope for the better in the condition of Mrs. Hayes.

At noon to-day, Burchard Hayes went to the depot to meet friends, and he expressed himself as not at all discouraged.

At 2 o'clock the doctors said there was no appreciable change and yet there was her condition was not so serious as it had been known since they remained in the same condition for ten days.

At 8 o'clock to-night a member of the family announced that Mrs. Hayes was not so well.

HER CONDITION IS NOT FAVORABLE

CLEVELAND, June 23.—A leader special from Frankfort, Ohio, June 23, says that Mrs. Hayes is still in the same condition, and that her condition is not so favorable as it was some time ago. She has taken no nourishment since Friday, and is gradually growing weaker.

GEN CAMERON STILL ALIVE.

The Physicians Say He May Survive For Some Time.

THE PROHIBITION DEFEATS

"A New Evidence of the Power and Extent of the Temperance Cause."

Chicago, June 23.—Mrs. J. Ellen Foster of Iowa, chairman of the women's national prohibition committee and well known as a temperance leader, is in the city on the occasion of the recent defeat of the liquor cause in the state. She is a new evidence of the power and extent of the temperance cause.

She denied that there had been a genuine test in Illinois and said that the result of the election was a fair one.

APPEALS AT JOHNSON

Considerable Indignation Over an Attempt to Collect Tax

JOHNSON, June 23.—Twenty-four of the portable homes from Chicago have been brought here for the purpose of collecting tax on the same.

The county treasurer has posted a notice stating that he will be here on Friday to collect the tax.

JOHNSON, June 23.—Colonel Epfinger in charge of the commissary department of the army, has been ordered to leave Johnson.

THOUSANDS ARE STILL DESTITUTE

The Towns of Johnson and the State of Iowa

JOHNSON, June 23.—The towns of Johnson and the state of Iowa are still in a state of destitution.
